GOVERNOR NOMINATION FORM

The Board of Governors is seeking interested and qualified candidates to join its governing board. Nominees must be initiated members of Alpha Delta Phi in good standing with their chapter and alumni organizations. Governors are volunteers who are elected to the board by the Convention. Each Governor serves a three year term with no compensation - including travel stipend.

Each candidate should be someone who is passionate about Alpha Delta Phi and its mission; willing to share their time and talents with both alumni and undergraduate brothers; a positive role model and willing to serve as an ambassador of the fraternity to the Greek community at large.
